TO THE DEMOCRATS OF THE NINTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

Pursuant to a call of the Chairman, your Executive Committee met at Catlettsburg Monday, April 19th, 1904, at 1 p. m., to fix the time, place and manner of nominating a candidate for Congress to be voted for at the November election, 1904. All the counties were represented.

On motion a resolution was adopted ordering a primary election for June 25th, 1904, between the hours of 9 a. m. and 4 p. m. for the purpose of selecting said nominee, the cost of said primary to be pro-rated among the different candidates.

But it was further ordered that if there be only one candidate on the 2nd day of May, 1904, who has notified the Chairman of this committee, in writing, of his candidacy, then the Chairman and Secretary of this committee are authorized and empowered to and they shall call off and revoke the order for said primary election. And if there is but one candidate at any time after that date and before the 10th day of May, 1904, they shall take the same action, and they shall declare said candidate the Democratic nominee for Congress, and shall duly certify his nomination to the Secretary of State and County Clerks of the district.

W. A. YOUNG,
 Chairman Democratic District Executive Committee. Postoffice, Morehead, Ky.

C. BURGESS TAYLOR, Secretary, Maysville, Ky.

FAYETTE Republicans contented themselves with instructing for Jordan C. Jackson for delegate-at-large from the State to the National convention. This was done to the exclusion of ex-Governor Bradley. This was rubbing it in on their old leader with a vengeance.

River News.

Virginia for Pittsburg and Tacoma for Pomeroy to-night.

The Ben Hur will pass down this evening and Bonanza to-night.

Thirty years ago a pioneer steamboatman, John Barrett, established a line of towboats on the Ohio river and styled it the Barrett Line. To-day this same line, under the ownership and management of his son, Captain Oscar F. Barrett, is running one of the finest lines of towboats on the great waterways. Four steamers comprise the complement of boats doing service. Among them is numbered the Barrett, the most powerful high-pressure towboat on the river. The other craft are the Beaver, the John Mackey and the Vidette. Twenty-five large barges are also possessed by the company. Two hundred and fifty men are employed and with the entire equipment make up a combination hard to compete with. In addition to the line of boats operated by the Barrett Line, it owns a large shipyard at Levan, where a specialty is made of building barges.

The "Nomads" will be glad to see their friends at their annual closing meeting at 2 p. m. Saturday, April 30th, at the Washington Hall at the opera house. A pleasant hour will be spent in which Miss Kahn, Principal of the Cincinnati School of Expression, will entertain with selections from Shakespeare and others. The program will be varied by musical selections and social entertainment. The program will appear in to-morrow's paper. Admission 25 cents.

PEARCE-HARRIS.

Former Resident of Maysville Weds Miss Mary Hall, a Popular Actress

[E. Quirer.]

"Dr. and Mrs. C. T. Pearce will be at home at the Anthony, Seminary place, Walnut Hills, after May 15."

The foregoing brief announcement was received by the Enquirer Saturday. Behind it is the story of a pretty romance, the culmination of which will interest many Cincinnatians who will recall Mrs. Pearce as Mary Hall, the clever and graceful leading lady of the Pike Stock Company last season, and who during her brief stay in the Queen City became one of the most popular of all the young actresses to hold the local boards. While it has been expected for some time that Dr. Pearce and Miss Hall were to wed, it will no doubt be a great surprise to their friends to hear that they have been married for over a month. The news of their marriage was kept a secret in order to permit Miss Hall to fulfill her contract for the present season with E. H. Sothern, in whose support the actress has been appearing since last fall. Miss Hall, as she is so favorably known here, will bid adieu to the stage in Brooklyn this week, where she is appearing for the last time in Sothern's performance of "The Proud Prince."

The happy couple are to spend a brief honeymoon in the East, returning to Cincinnati soon to take up their permanent residence in a cozy home that Dr. Pearce has as quietly fitted out as he has managed to keep concealed the fact of his marriage.

The story of Miss Hall's courtship and marriage to one of Cincinnati's rising and most popular young physicians is as romantic and interesting in its details as many of the plays that this clever actress has appeared in during her work upon the stage with different stock companies. In a quiet little rectory at Kankakee, Ill., on March 3, during the engagement of Mr. Sothern in Chicago, Dr. Pearce and Miss Hall were married. They had slipped down to the little Illinois town so quietly that none of their friends were aware that they had left Chicago, and that evening Miss Hall returned to her work at the theatre without giving any of her associates the slightest hint of the very unusual day she had passed through. The actress had notified Mr. Sothern of her intention to leave The Proud Prince Company at the end of the week in which she was married, but the latter begged her to remain with him for the rest of the season, and, as it was difficult for him to secure another player to take her place, Miss Hall decided to fill out the full terms of her contract. On this account the couple agreed to keep the news of the marriage a secret until Miss Hall had severed her connection with the stage.

NINTH DISTRICT REPUBLICANS.

They Meet Here To-day to Select Delegates to the National Convention—Attendance Not Large.

Judging by the number of delegates who arrived last evening comparatively little interest is taken by the Republicans of the Ninth district in the convention to select delegates to the National convention. Only about twenty-five came in last evening, Harrison and Bracken sending most of these.

There are several "favorite sons" after the honor of representing the district at Chicago, but opinion last evening seemed to be that Dearing of Fleming and Weaver of Boyd had the best chances. Senator Cox's friends hope he will be chosen as one of the delegates.

The convention meets at the court house at 1 p. m.

The Redmen's Carnival Committee has appointed two of the number Messrs. J. W. Fitzgerald and J. W. Outten to visit the Robinson Amusement Company at its opening in Lexington May 16th-21st, and see the character of the shows. This was done on the invitation of the company. The company guarantees the excellent character of its entertainments.

During the storm Saturday, lightning struck the residence of Mr. N. H. Richardson on Jersey Ridge. The bolt ran down one of the chimneys, loosening the brick to such an extent that it may have to be rebuilt. The entire house was filled with smoke, but the hall door was open and it is thought this alone prevented a fire. Mr. N. B. Marsh, Mrs. Richardson's brother who is in feeble health, was the only one in the house at the time. Fortunately he was lying on a couch some distance from the room the bolt entered, and escaped uninjured, aside from a severe shock.

A GREAT TRUTH.

How it Has Spread From Home to Home in Maysville.

In every part of Maysville, in the homes of the wealthy, in the humble abode of the man of toil, 'tis now a well-known fact—a great truth—that Doan's Kidney Pills have brought more comfort to backache sufferers and cured more sick kidneys than any medicine of modern times.

Mrs. M. C. Chisholm of 343 East Second street says: "Mr. Chisholm speaks in high terms of Doan's Kidney Pills. He procured them at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drugstore, corner West Second and Market streets, and their use proved them to be an effective kidney remedy. I have heard others express their appreciation of Doan's Kidney Pills. A medicine which cures kidney trouble is a most desirable one of which to know."

HYOMEI A RECORD-BREAKER.

Novel Method of Curing Catarrh—Sold on Approval by J. James Wood & Son.

The popularity and remarkable sales of Hyomei have broken all records. In nearly every city and town in the country, this guaranteed cure for catarrh has given most astonishing results.

The leading druggists are so enthusiastic over the remarkable percentage of cures following the use of Hyomei, that with hardly an exception, they advise to their customers that Hyomei will be sold with the understanding that it costs nothing unless it cures.

In Maysville Wood & Son are endorsing it and guaranteeing to refund the money unless Hyomei cures catarrh. They have sold a great many Hyomei outfits, and to-day no other treatment for the cure of catarrh has as many friends in Maysville and vicinity as Hyomei.

It is a scientific, yet common sense method of treating and curing this too common disease. It sends by direct inhalation to every cell of the air passages in the head, throat and lungs, a balsamic air that destroys all catarrhal germs, purifies the blood with additional ozone, and makes a complete and lasting cure of any catarrhal trouble.

The complete outfit costs but $1, and includes an inhaler, medicine dropper and sufficient Hyomei for several weeks treatment.

You take no risk in buying Hyomei. J. J. Wood & Son positively guarantees to refund your money unless it cures.

In Memoriam.

Miss Patricia Hanley, aged sixteen, died at 1 p. m. Thursday, Feb. 11th, 1904, of bronchial trouble at the home of her mother, Mrs. Margaret Hanley, near Mayslick.

With the dawning light of life scarcely begun, the grave opened up and took to its embrace one we have known by the sacred name of friend. Many years will elapse before the memory of this lovely character will fade from the minds and hearts of her friends and acquaintances. Her disposition so gentle, so kind, always doing something to please others, will long be remembered by those that knew her.

The funeral took place Saturday morning from St. Rose of Lima Church at Mayslick after which the remains were taken and gently laid to rest in the cemetery at Washington.

The child of our love and affection
 We have laid to her long, last rest.
 When God made his choice it was cast
 On the treasure we prized the best.
 As like the snowflake, spotless
 That falls to its source, the sea,
 Ere the world had defiled her spirit
 We gave her back, Lord, to Thee.
 Mayslick, Ky., Apr. 14th, 1904. A FRIEND.

"Button, Button, Whose Got the Button?"

Hunt's have. You're going to question some one's honesty when you see the buttons too for it hardly seems credible by any straight transaction such values could be offered for 5c. a dozen. Well OUR conscience is safe so you can impugn the other fellow's integrity to your heart's content. Some one must have erred somewhere, to make possible

DEERING MACHINERY and TWINE.

Read what a Mason County farmer says of his Deering Binder:

This is to certify that I bought a Deering Tongue Truck 8 ft. Binder in 1902, and wish to say that it is as far ahead of the old 6 and 7 ft. binders as day is brighter than night. In one day I cut 30 acres of heavy wheat, and without tiring my horses any more than cutting 15 acres with the old 6 ft. binder. It is perfectly free from neck weight or side draft and a pleasure to operate, elevating grain that the old small binders would choke on. Too much cannot be said in favor of this matchless labor saver. I can cheerfully recommend it to all my friends as the binder par excellence. Very truly,
 CHAS. T. MARSHALL.

This is only a sample of what everybody says who has a Deering Ideal Binder.

Trials of Motherhood

395 Broad Street, PHILADELPHIA, PA., June 12, 1903.

I suffered for nine years with ovarian troubles making life a burden to myself as well as to my family. During that time I had two miscarriages and although we longed for a child to bless our home this seemed impossible. I had constant racking bearing-down pains in the pelvic organs and a pulling through my limbs with frequent headaches. I felt sick at my stomach and vomited frequently and no medicine helped me until I tried Wine of Cardui.

Then my general health improved, the pains gradually lessened and after 18 weeks I was well. I am now the happy mother of a boy eighteen months old and my husband joins me in sending heartfelt thanks to you for your splendid medicine. Without it I would have been a childless, instead of a happy and well mother.

Chaplain, St. Andrew's Association.

WINE of CARDUI

Wine of Cardui is the most successful menstrual regulator. By regulating menstruation, Wine of Cardui banishes inflammation from the entire female organism and the strengthened ligaments bring the organs back to their proper place. This is what Wine of Cardui did for Mrs. Nirdlinger. It banished the racking pains and burning inflammation and brought her relief. She was restored to health and strength and gives Wine of Cardui the credit of making her able to become a happy mother. This medicine equips a woman for every duty of wifehood and motherhood. There are many suffering women who think that health can never be theirs because they cannot secure the services of a great specialist, but we want to say right here that while Mrs. Nirdlinger lives in Philadelphia, a great medical center, she depended on Wine of Cardui for a cure and she was cured. This same medicine is within your reach. Will you take it?

All druggists sell $1.00 bottles Wine of Cardui.
